

UNIVERSITA' DEGLI STUDI DI BERGAMO

DIPARTIMENTO DI INGEGNERIA GESTIONALE

Viale Marconi, 5 24044 Dalmine (BG)

Dottorato in Economia e Management della Tecnologia

Dottorandi del XXIV° Ciclo

Annageldy Arazmuradov

annageldy.arazmuradov@unibg.it

Resume and Research Interests: Born on 24 August, 1973 in Ashgabad City, Turkmenistan. First degree was obtained in chemistry, 1990-1995, from Turkmen State University (TSU) named after Makhtumkuli. From 1995-1997 conducted research and teaching on department of chemistry (TSU). 1997-1998-military service. During the period of 1999-2006 has worked on different positions in organizations such as USAID/Winrock International "FtF" program, UNICEF and Counterpart Consortium. The degree of Master of Science in Economics, major in Management with "magna cum laude" was obtained from University of Lugano, USI, Switzerland in May 2008. The master thesis completed was on topic "Efficiency study of Swiss Airport Management: empirical approach based on Data Envelopment Analysis". From January 2009 have a status of a doctorate student on the program "Economics and Management of Technology" at the University of Bergamo, Dalmine, Italy. Main research areas are: empirical analysis in economics, management and finance.

Clementina Bruno

clementina.bruno@unibg.it

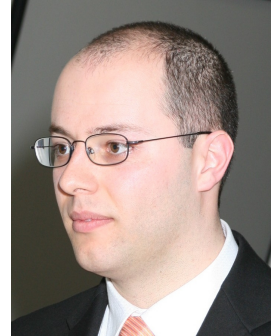

Resume and Research Interests: Clementina Bruno (Varallo Sesia, 28th October 1981), has studied Business at the Eastern Piedmont University and got her degree on July 2008 with the thesis: "Integrated Water Service in Italy: configuration and economic-operational aspects of the Water Authorities". Since January 2009 holds a scholarship founded by "Fondazione Bordonni", Rome.

Alessandro Manello

alessandro.manello@unibg.it

Resume and Research Interests: Born in Chieri (TO) on 28/05/1983. Received the advanced undergraduate degree in Economics with "cum laude", University of Turin, Faculty of Economics in March 2008 with a dissertation in Applied Economics titled "Tendenze della produttività, progresso tecnico ed efficienza nei paesi OCSE". Was a member of the "Allievi Program" at Real Collegio Carlo Alberto in Moncalieri from September 2007 to May 2008. After a working period for Ferrero spa, became a research assistant at CERIS-CNR for the economical and financial analysis of local firms. From January 2009 was awarded scholarship for the Ph. D. in Economics and Management of Technology at University of Bergamo.

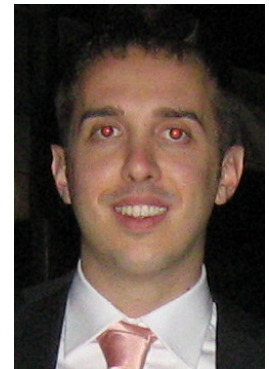

Stefano Pedrini

stefano.pedrini@unibg.it

Resume and Research Interests: Born in Lovere (BG) in 1983, he graduated with honours in Management Engineering at University of Bergamo in February 2008 with a thesis entitled "External Growth and M&A operations in Electronics Outsourcing Industry". Since March 2008 he works as research assistant at the Department of Economics and Technology Management of the University of Bergamo.

Since January 2009, he holds an institutional scholarship for attending the PhD Program in Economics and Management of Technology.

Loredana Sasso

loredana.sasso@unibg.it

Resume and Research Interests: Nata a Mantova il 21 dicembre 1984, ha conseguito con Lode la Laurea Triennale in Economia Aziendale, presso l'Università di Parma, nonché la Laurea Specialistica (con Lode) in Mercati e Strategie d'Impresa (classe di laurea 84/s) presso l'Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore di Milano nell'ottobre 2008, discutendo la tesi finale dal titolo: "Esperienze Imprenditoriali di Opportunity Recognition: un'analisi empirica". Dal gennaio 2009 è titolare di una borsa di studio, finanziata dalla Fondazione Bordoni di Roma, per la frequenza al Dottorato di Ricerca in Economia e Management della Tecnologia presso l'Università di Bergamo.

