Sociology of Tourism in Local Development – Course Outline (2017-18)
(prof. Domenico Perrotta and Elisabeth Kastenholz)

Tuesday 10 April, h. 15-18, room 55 Salvecchio
Perrotta: The concepts of development, local development, sustainable development.

Please read for next session (13-04):

Friday 13 April, h. 12-15, room 22 Salvecchio
Perrotta: “Heritage, Tourism and the City. Insights from the cases of Naples and Cape Town”, seminar with Nick Dines (European University Institute)

Please read for next session (16-04):

Monday 16 April, h. 15-18, room 3 Salvecchio
Kastenholz: Tourism, Sustainability and Quality of Life – concepts and market trends – the LOHAS segment

Please read for next session (17-04):

Tuesday 17 April, h. 15-18, room 55 Salvecchio
Kastenholz: The integrated destination experience and local community development – an action-research approach and evidence from Rural Tourism in Portugal (ORTE project)

Please read for next session (20-04):
Friday 20 April, h. 12-15, room 22 Salvecchio
Kastenholz: The role of local products as part of the tourist experience and impacts on local development – more evidence from the ORTE project

Please read for next session (24-04):

Tuesday 24 April, h. 15-18, room 55 Salvecchio
Perrotta: The patrimonialization of “local” food in tourism, and the structure of agri-food production. The agriculture-tourism nexus. Insights from research in Southern Italy.

Please read for next sessions (03/04-05):

Thursday 3 May, h. 16-19, room 55 Salvecchio
Kastenholz: The social dimension of the tourist experience, co-creation and implications on local development – the rural tourist experience in Portuguese hinterland villages (ORTE project) and co-creating urban tourism in London

Friday 4 May, h. 12-15, room 22 Salvecchio
Kastenholz: Network approaches in tourism development – the cases of Genuineland, Alqueva Dark Sky and the Schist Villages in Portugal

Tuesday 8 May, h. 15-18, room 55 Salvecchio
Perrotta: Labour and labourers in tourism sector

Friday 11 May, h. 12-15, room 22 Salvecchio
Perrotta: Tourism and sustainability, final remarks